3 Registration payment and acceptance

Registration is personal. The participant must provide complete, true and current information, including date of birth and emergency contact details. A participant may compete only under the identity recorded in the official registration system.

Before payment, the participant must be given access to these Official Event Rules and the separate Participant Waiver and must actively confirm acceptance through the required registration checkboxes. Completion of payment after those confirmations constitutes electronic acceptance of both documents and forms part of the participant's registration agreement with Outdoor Moris Xperience. Payment alone, without the required acceptance confirmations, must not be treated as acceptance.

4 Entry fees transfers and refunds

All entry fees, platform charges and ancillary purchases are non-refundable in the event of withdrawal, non-participation, illness, injury, travel disruption, failure to collect the race pack, disqualification or a change of personal circumstances. Entries may not be deferred or transferred except through an official procedure expressly authorised by the Organiser.

If the event is cancelled, postponed, shortened, rerouted or modified because of severe weather, cyclone, natural disaster, public-authority instruction, security concern, public-health requirement or another circumstance outside the Organiser's reasonable control, no refund is guaranteed. Outdoor Moris Xperience may, at its discretion and subject to costs already committed, offer an alternative arrangement, transfer or credit. Nothing in this clause overrides rights that cannot lawfully be excluded.

5 Race numbers

- Race numbers must be collected according to the published procedure and photographic identification may be required.
- The official number must be worn visibly on the front and must not be folded, altered, duplicated or obscured.
- A number may not be sold, exchanged or given to another person. An authorised substitution must be completed before the published deadline.

6 Conduct and competition rules

- Participants must follow the official course and all instructions from the Organiser, officials, marshals, medical personnel and police.
- Course cutting, unauthorised transport, outside pacing or unfair assistance may result in disqualification.
- Participants must behave respectfully and must not create an unnecessary risk to themselves or others.
- Littering outside designated areas is prohibited.
- Animals, bicycles, scooters, skates, skateboards, unauthorised vehicles and unsafe equipment are prohibited unless expressly authorised.
- Headphones are permitted only when the participant remains fully aware of traffic, other runners and official instructions.

7 Health medical assistance and safety

Each participant is responsible for deciding whether they are sufficiently fit and prepared for the selected distance. A participant must not start or continue while unwell or where symptoms make participation unsafe. The Organiser or authorised medical personnel may prevent a participant from starting or continuing where participation presents a safety concern.

Participants must remain alert to road conditions, traffic management, weather, other participants and official instructions. Ordinary road hazards may remain unless a section is expressly confirmed as fully closed.

8 Cut offs course closure and aid stations

No specific cut-off applies to the 5 km or 10 km. The Half Marathon cut-off is 4 hours and the Marathon cut-off is 6 hours. Intermediate checkpoints may apply. A participant missing a cut-off may be instructed to stop, board official transport or leave the active course. After course closure, timing, traffic control, aid stations and medical coverage may no longer be available.

Aid-station locations and supplies will be stated in the participant guide. Participants remain responsible for any additional hydration, nutrition, medication or personal supplies they require.

9 Timing results protests and disqualification

- Official results are determined by the systems selected by the Organiser.
- Participants must cross all required timing points. Missing or irregular data may lead to verification or disqualification.
- A protest must be submitted in writing to the Race Director within 30 minutes of publication of the relevant provisional result.
- The Organiser may correct results or disqualify a participant after the event where reliable evidence establishes a breach.

10 Changes cancellation and force majeure

Safety takes priority over the published programme. Outdoor Moris Xperience may modify the course, start time, wave allocation, cut-offs, aid stations, race format or operational arrangements where reasonably required by weather, road conditions, emergency response, public-authority instructions or circumstances outside its reasonable control. Such changes do not automatically create a right to reimbursement.

11 Photography and personal data

Event photography and video use must be covered by the consent presented during registration. Registration data may be processed for payment, administration, timing, results, safety, emergency contact and participant communications. Sponsor or third-party marketing requires a separate optional opt-in.

12 Governing law and authority

These Rules are governed by the laws of the Republic of Mauritius. The Race Director and Outdoor Moris Xperience may interpret and apply them, subject to applicable law and any mandatory requirements of the relevant athletics authorities. If one provision is invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions continue to apply.
